Sunwest Equine Services will be hosting their 3rd annual Schooling and Fun Show in support of the Youth Emergency Shelter Society on May 29, 2010. This show is intended to provide a venue for beginner riders to get their confidence and for experienced riders to school their horses or try something different.

Competitors, spectators and the general public are invited to collect cash pledges.

The person who collects the most money in pledges will receive a cash prize equal to the amount they collect to a maximum of $3,000.00, donated by Boychuk Ventures Inc. Several draws will be made from the remaining names for a number of other valuable prizes. Visit our web site sunwestequine.com for an up to date list of available prizes.

Competitors who collect $200.00 may enter any number of classes at no charge. (One rider or handler with one or more horses, or one horse with one or more riders or handlers.)

4H Clubs can also enter as a team and compete to win a clinic for their club with Lavern Schmidt, Equine Canada Level 2 Coach and Mentor and Andrea Gie of South Africa.

Everyone who participates is eligible for all the individual prizes.
